Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture Expands International Cooperation with Belarus

Baxtiyor Yakubov, Vice-Rector for Research and Innovation at the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture, paid a visit to the Belarusian State University of Culture and Arts.

As part of the visit, a meeting was held with the University's Rector, Natalya Karchevskaya, Vice-Rector for Research, Yelena Korsakova, and Head of the International Relations Department, Vadim Samatiya.

The meeting focused on developing cooperation between the two higher education institutions, implementing joint research and creative projects, and creating new opportunities for students and academic staff. The parties also signed a cooperation agreement. Under this agreement, they plan to organize joint academic conferences, student theatre festivals, youth initiatives, and intercultural projects.

During the visit, Baxtiyor Yakubov explored the University's museum exhibition, attended a practical class organized by the Department of Choreography, and familiarized himself with the facilities and capabilities of the University's multifunctional sports and cultural centre.

This cooperation is expected to further strengthen ties between the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture and the Belarusian State University of Culture and Arts in the fields of education, research, and creative activities.
