The “Young Book Lovers” Competition Held

The “Young Book Lovers” competition was held at the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture as part of the “Friendship” Festival, under the motto “WE ARE THE CHILDREN OF NEW UZBEKISTAN!”

The competition was opened by Sobir Madiyev, Acting Rector of the Institute. In his address, he highlighted the importance of enhancing the spiritual development of young people, strengthening their intellectual potential, fostering a culture of reading, and recognizing the role of fiction in shaping an individual’s worldview and thinking. He also encouraged students to read regularly, broaden their horizons, and enrich their knowledge through books.

During the competition, participants tested their knowledge of 10 recommended literary works. They answered questions about the content and underlying themes of the works, the characters, key events, as well as the lives and creative careers of the authors.

Throughout the competition, students demonstrated their literary knowledge, independent thinking, ability to respond quickly to questions, and literary analysis skills.

According to the competition results, the following participants were named winners:

- 1st Place – Ogiloy Yoldosheva
- 2nd Place – Husnida Kholmakhmatova
- 3rd Place – Madina Uzoqova

The winners received diplomas and commemorative gifts, while the other participants were presented with letters of appreciation.

We sincerely congratulate the winners and wish them continued success in their studies!

The competition was organized with the aim of further strengthening the reading culture among young people, encouraging greater interest in literature, and identifying active and knowledgeable readers.

TANLOV

5
5
3
4

“YOŞ KITOB
AR”
TAN