Cooperation Between Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture and Krasnodar State Institute of Culture Is Expanding

From 11 to 14 November 2026, the 1st International Student Festival “A Garland of Melodies”, dedicated to the national music of the member states of the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO), is taking place in Krasnodar, Russian Federation.

As part of this international festival, the signing of a cooperation agreement between the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture oand Krasnodar State Institute of Culture is also planned.

This initiative aims to develop ties between the two higher education institutions in the fields of education, science and culture, promote the exchange of experience, and create new opportunities for implementing promising joint projects.

In this regard, Sayfulla Ikramov, First Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs and Spiritual and Educational Work of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture, is visiting Krasnodar State Institute of Culture to participate in the international festival and discuss matters related to the signing of the cooperation agreement.

The visit and the planned cooperation agreement are expected to mark an important step towards strengthening the Institute’s international relations, promoting Uzbekistan’s national arts and culture on the international stage, and taking bilateral academic and creative cooperation to a new level.
