

Tianjin Conservatory of Music Holds an Online Master Class for Students

An online master class for students was organized by the Tianjin Conservatory of Music (PRC) at the Department of Vocal Performance of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture.

The event was attended by Wang Hongwei, President of Tianjin Conservatory of Music; Bao Yang, Vice President; Feng Lei, Director of the International Exchange and Cooperation Center; Kong Weifeng, Deputy Director of the International Exchange and Cooperation Center; Wang Zenan, Vice Dean of the Opera College; Chen Ling, Foreign Affairs Specialist of the International Exchange and Cooperation Center; Liu Rui, Director of the Piano Department and Head of the Accordion Teaching and Research Section; Bai Tianyi, Artistic Director of the Piano Program at the Opera College; as well as Yang Guan, an undergraduate student of the Opera College.

From the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture, the master class was attended by Bakhtiyor Yakubov, Vice-Rector for Scientific Affairs and Innovations; Saodat Muzafarova, Head of the Department of Vocal Performance, Professor; Feruza Khakimova, Head of the Department of Instrumental Performance, Associate Professor; Khusniddin Khusanov, Head of the Department of National Singing, Associate Professor; as well as faculty members of the department and students majoring in Vocal Performance.

During the master class, fourth-year student of the Vocal Performance program Leniyar Yagyaeva performed the song “Sendadur ko‘zlarim” (music by B. Umidjanov, lyrics by Oybek) and Laretta’s aria from Giacomo Puccini’s opera Gianni Schicchi. The instructor was Associate Professor Nodira Kabulova, and the accompanist was Feruza Abdullaeva.

At the end of the master class, specialists from the conservatory provided practical recommendations on performance, particularly regarding vocal technique, breathing, stage culture, and character interpretation. The participants noted that this international cooperation would contribute to further improving the quality of vocal education.

We hope that this master class will contribute to enhancing students' professional skills and promoting international exchange of experience in the field of vocal performance.

The Rector of the Russian Institute of Theatre Arts –
GITIS, Professor Grigory Zaslavsky, awarded the honorary title of Professor of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture

Since 2023, Uzbekistan has been hosting the “Four Hearts” – a gathering of Russian drama theatres of Uzbekistan.

This international project is implemented by the Representative Office of Rossotrudnichestvo in Uzbekistan with the organizational support of the Ministry of Culture of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

Within the framework of this cultural initiative, training courses, directing laboratories, and charity performances are organized for directors and managers of Russian drama theatres.

From November 2 to 8, 2025, the third edition of the international meeting “Four Hearts” is scheduled to take place in Uzbekistan.

Today, the first meeting of this international project was held at the Holiday Inn Hotel in Tashkent.

The event was attended by the Rector of the Russian Institute of Theatre Arts – GITIS, Professor Grigory Zaslavsky; the Head of the Representative Office of the Rossotrudnichestvo Agency in Uzbekistan, Irina Staroselskaya; the Head of the Secretariat of the Minister of Culture of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Ozodjon Yuldashev; the Rector of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture, Professor Nodirbek Sayfullayev; the Director of the Youth Theatre of Uzbekistan and Associate Professor of the Institute, Farhod Juraev; as well as several faculty members, directors and actors of Russian theatres, and representatives of the cultural and artistic community.

During his address, Professor Nodirbek Sayfullayev expressed his gratitude to Grigory Zaslavsky for his visit and emphasized the growing strength of cultural and educational ties between Uzbekistan and Russia. He also discussed the importance of experience exchange and creative collaboration between faculty and students of GITIS and the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture.

A highlight of the event was the ceremonial presentation of the honorary title of Professor of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture to Professor Grigory Zaslavsky, along with commemorative gifts.

This honorary title was conferred by the decision of the Academic Council of the Institute in recognition of his effective scholarly and creative work in the field of art and culture, his contribution to the development of theatre art at the international level, and his efforts to strengthen creative cooperation between the two countries.

In his response, Professor Grigory Zaslavsky expressed his sincere gratitude and noted that he views this recognition as a sign of trust and responsibility in further expanding cultural ties with Uzbekistan. He also emphasized that cooperation between the two institutions opens up new opportunities for implementing joint scientific, practical, and creative projects in the future.

For reference:

From October 6 to 11, 2025, professors of the Russian Institute of Theatre Arts – GITIS, including Alexander Barmak (PhD in Art Studies, Professor, Honored Art Worker of the Russian Federation), Aidar Zakirov (Head of the Department of Stage Movement, Professor, Honored Art Worker of the Russian Federation), Natalia Privalova (Associate Professor of Vocal Art, Honored Artist of the Russian Federation), and Tatyana Morozova (Senior Lecturer in Acting) conducted master classes at the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture.

Following the workshops, participants held an open and friendly discussion about the further development of theatre art, current challenges, and ways to strengthen creative cooperation.

Republican Scientific-Practical Conference on the Theme “Pop Art of the New Era: In Spiritual, Artistic, and Educational Contexts”

At the State Institute of Arts and Culture of Uzbekistan, the Department of “Pop and Mass Performance Arts” hosted a republican scientific-practical conference on the theme “Pop Art of the New Era: In Spiritual, Artistic, and Educational Contexts.”

The main goal of the conference was to study and analyze the spiritual, artistic, and educational aspects of pop art in the cultural development of New Uzbekistan; to develop theoretical and practical recommendations aimed at reforming the process of training highly qualified specialists in pop acting and directing of mass festivities and performances; and to strengthen scientific and creative cooperation among science, education, and industry.

The conference gathered leading specialists in the field – directors and chief producers of capital theatres, television directors, professors, researchers, master’s students, and talented undergraduates, as well as directors and teachers of cultural and art institutions across the republic.

Opening the conference, the Rector of the Institute, Professor Nodirbek Sayfullayev, emphasized the role of art – particularly pop art and mass performances – in shaping the spiritual and cultural image of New Uzbekistan. He drew attention to achievements and existing shortcomings in the field, the need for deeper integration between educational institutions and creative industries, and wished success to all participants.

During the plenary session, the following presentations were delivered:

Prof. Dr. Muhabbat Tulyakhodjayeva – “Artistic and Aesthetic Value of Modern Pop Art, Contemporary Trends in Television Music Videos, Achievements and Challenges.”

Prof. Jahongir Mamatqosimov – “Application of Innovative Technologies in the Directing of Modern Mass Festivals, Integration of Science, Education, and Production: Issues and Solutions.”

Husniddin Ato, Head of OXUS Culture – “International

Experience in Organizing Mass Celebrations and Festivals.”

Acting Professor Ramz Qodirov – “Specifics of Teaching Stage Speech in Acting Specialties: Developing Stage Speech of Pop Performers.”

Rauf Nabiyeu, Director of Rapid Company, Film Director and Clip Maker – “The Importance of Using Artificial Intelligence in the Modern Media Sphere and Current Developments in Uzbekistan.”

Dr. Charos Rakhimova (PhD), Senior Researcher at the Research Institute of Cultural Studies and Intangible Cultural Heritage – “The Role of Pop Art in the Formation of National Identity.”

Prof. Lola Ganieva, Candidate of Art Studies – “Issues of Performance Mastery in the Pop Art of the New Era.”

Each presentation was warmly received and generated lively discussions.

The conference continued in two parallel sessions:

“Current Issues of Pop Art: In the Context of Tradition and Modernity,”

“Current Issues of Training Specialists in Pop Art.”

More than 50 reports on the development of the field were presented. The Department of “Pop and Mass Performance Arts” also gave a presentation on its educational, methodological, research, and international cooperation activities.

As part of the conference, a performance titled “Autumn”, staged by Professor Temur Rashidov and performed by 3rd-year students of “Pop Acting Art,” was presented. The discussion highlighted its artistic quality and its alignment with the aesthetics of the pop theatre genre.

The conference concluded with an analysis of the cultural significance of pop art in social life, the development of forward-looking plans, examination of pressing issues in training directors of mass performances and pop actors, and review of international experiences in organizing mass events.

Recommendations were also made for improving faculty qualifications abroad.

At the end of the event, participants were awarded certificates.

Nodirbek Sayfullayev Visits the International Mugham Center

Today, Professor Nodirbek Sayfullayev, Rector of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture, together with a delegation of the institute's professors and teachers, paid a visit to the International Mugham Center in Baku, Republic of Azerbaijan.

At the beginning of the visit, Professor Sayfullayev met with the Director of the Mugham Center, Sahib Pashazade. During the meeting, the parties discussed strengthening cultural ties between the two countries, expanding creative cooperation, and implementing joint projects.

During the conversation, both sides reached an agreement to organize future joint events such as master classes, concert programs, and scientific-practical seminars.

At the opening of the joint concert program held at the Mugham Center, Professor Sayfullayev delivered a speech.

In his address, he stated:

– The cultural relations between Uzbekistan and Azerbaijan have a long history and continue to develop steadily today. The bonds of friendship and brotherhood between our two nations are strengthening not only in the political or economic spheres but also in the fields of art and culture. Today's joint concert is a vivid manifestation of these friendly ties.

– We are united by shared values and common cultural roots. Therefore, our common goal is to further expand these relations and elevate our creative cooperation to a new level, – he said.

Recognizing the contribution of the Mugham Center's Director, Sahib Pashazade, Professor Sayfullayev awarded him the title of Honorary Professor of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture. He also spoke about the institute's training theater and the facilities available there for hosting similar events.

Furthermore, he expressed his pleasure in emphasizing that the doors of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture are always open to representatives of Azerbaijani culture. At the end of the meeting, both sides exchanged memorable gifts.

The event concluded with a joint concert featuring professors and teachers of the institute together with vocalists and instrumentalists from the National Mugham Center.

Friendship and Cultural Cooperation between Uzbekistan and Azerbaijan

Strengthening the bonds of friendship and cultural cooperation between Uzbekistan and Azerbaijan, further developing collaboration between the two higher education institutions, exchanging creative experience, and expanding interaction between professors, teachers, and students – all this can rightfully be considered one of the important reforms currently being implemented between the two countries.

These days, a delegation of professors and teachers from the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture, headed by Rector Professor Nodirbek Sayfullayev, is on a working visit to the Republic of Azerbaijan. The purpose of the visit is to exchange experience, improve professional skills, and organize a joint concert at the International Mugham Center of Azerbaijan.

The delegation includes professors and teachers from the Faculty of Folk Art – the departments of “National Singing” and “Instrumental Performance”: People’s Singers of Uzbekistan, Professors Beknazar Dusmuradov and Soyibjon Niyozov; Honored Artist of Uzbekistan, Professor Akhmatjon Dadayev; Associate Professors Yusuf Vahidov, Husniddin Khusanov, Acting Associate Professor Qahramon Turayev, and teacher Javohir Turatov.

On the first day of their visit, the delegation visited the Carpet Museum – the first carpet museum in the world – and the Azerbaijan Museum of Art, where they became acquainted with various carpet weaving techniques and information related to different historical periods.

After that, they visited the International Mugham Center of Azerbaijan, where they met with the Center’s Director, Sahib Pashazade. During the meeting, the parties discussed the Center’s activities and issues related to thorough preparation for the upcoming joint creative concert.

New Stages of Cooperation with China

On September 19–20 of this year, Bakhtiyor Yakubov, Vice-Rector for Research and Innovation of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture, and Maksim Savochkin, Director of the Institute's Center for Digital Educational Technologies, participated in a conference held at the Jilin International University of Education in Changchun, People's Republic of China.

During a cordial meeting with the University President, Ms. Xin He, Vice-Rector Bakhtiyor Yakubov expressed his gratitude for the invitation and conveyed the congratulations of Professor Nodirbek Sayfullayev, Rector of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture, on the occasion of the university's 30th anniversary.

Ms. Xin He expressed sincere appreciation for the visit and confidence that this meeting would mark new stages of fruitful cooperation between the two universities.

Following this, at the initiative of the International Art Academy of the University, a roundtable discussion was held on cooperation between China and Uzbekistan in the field of art education. The event was attended by the Academy's Director, Mr. Wang Xianhui, Vice-Rectors Guo Tingjun and Wang Zhuo, and members of the faculty. This meeting became an important part of the university's anniversary celebrations and provided an opportunity to further deepen bilateral cooperation in art education and promote cultural exchange.

During the discussion, Mr. Wang Xianhui warmly welcomed the Uzbekistan delegation and shared the university's key achievements over the past 30 years in language education, art programs, and international collaboration. He emphasized that the International Art Academy focuses on innovative development through the integration model of "art + foreign language + digital technology" and expressed hope that this meeting would serve as an important step toward joint progress.

In response, Vice-Rector Bakhtiyor Yakubov spoke about the history and unique educational areas of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture, expressing interest in further developing cooperation in art education, scientific research, and student exchange.

Both sides discussed promising areas of collaboration, including the creation of joint courses, faculty and student exchanges, art exhibitions, and research partnerships. They also proposed double-degree undergraduate programs (“2+2”), combined bachelor’s–master’s programs (“2+3”), and international summer school projects. Participants noted that this meeting marked an important milestone in building a “community of shared destiny” in art education between China and Uzbekistan and would help create new opportunities for the younger generation of both countries.

As a symbol of long-term friendship and partnership, the parties exchanged cultural gifts.

After the official part, the guests toured the university library, the International Education Center, and the “Global Village” practical training base. They also had the opportunity to learn about the university’s scientific achievements, educational facilities, student-created works of applied art, exhibitions dedicated to the university’s anniversary, and the culture and lifestyle of Jilin Province.

Participants highly praised the university’s accomplishments over its 30-year history, its contribution to cultural dialogue, experience in training international specialists, and active support for the “Belt and Road” initiative.

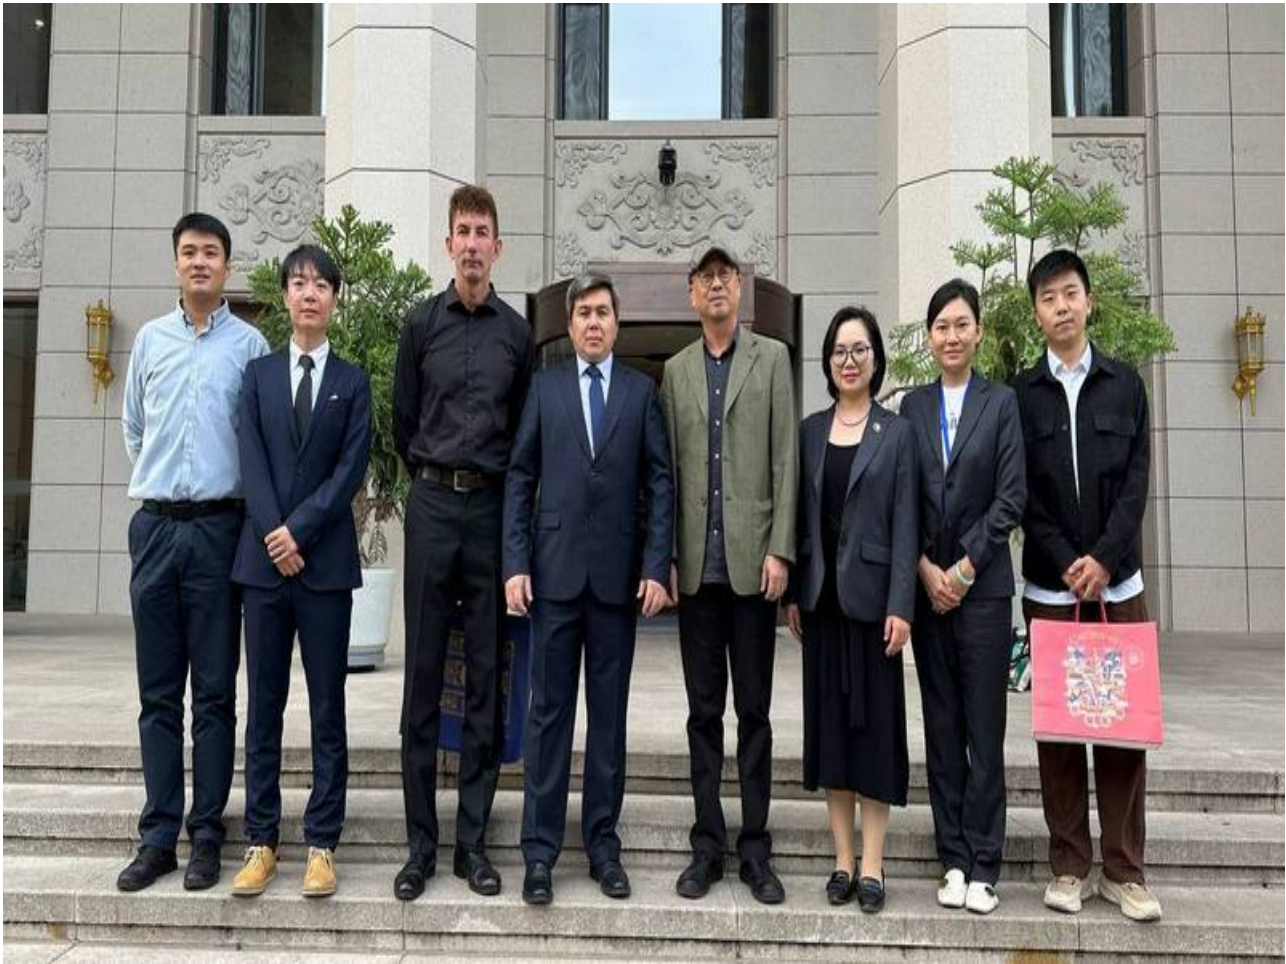

On the second day of the visit, the Conference of Presidents of Chinese and Foreign Universities took place, where participants discussed strategic directions for developing international cooperation in education, science, and innovation. They shared experiences in implementing educational programs, digitalizing learning processes, and developing joint research projects.

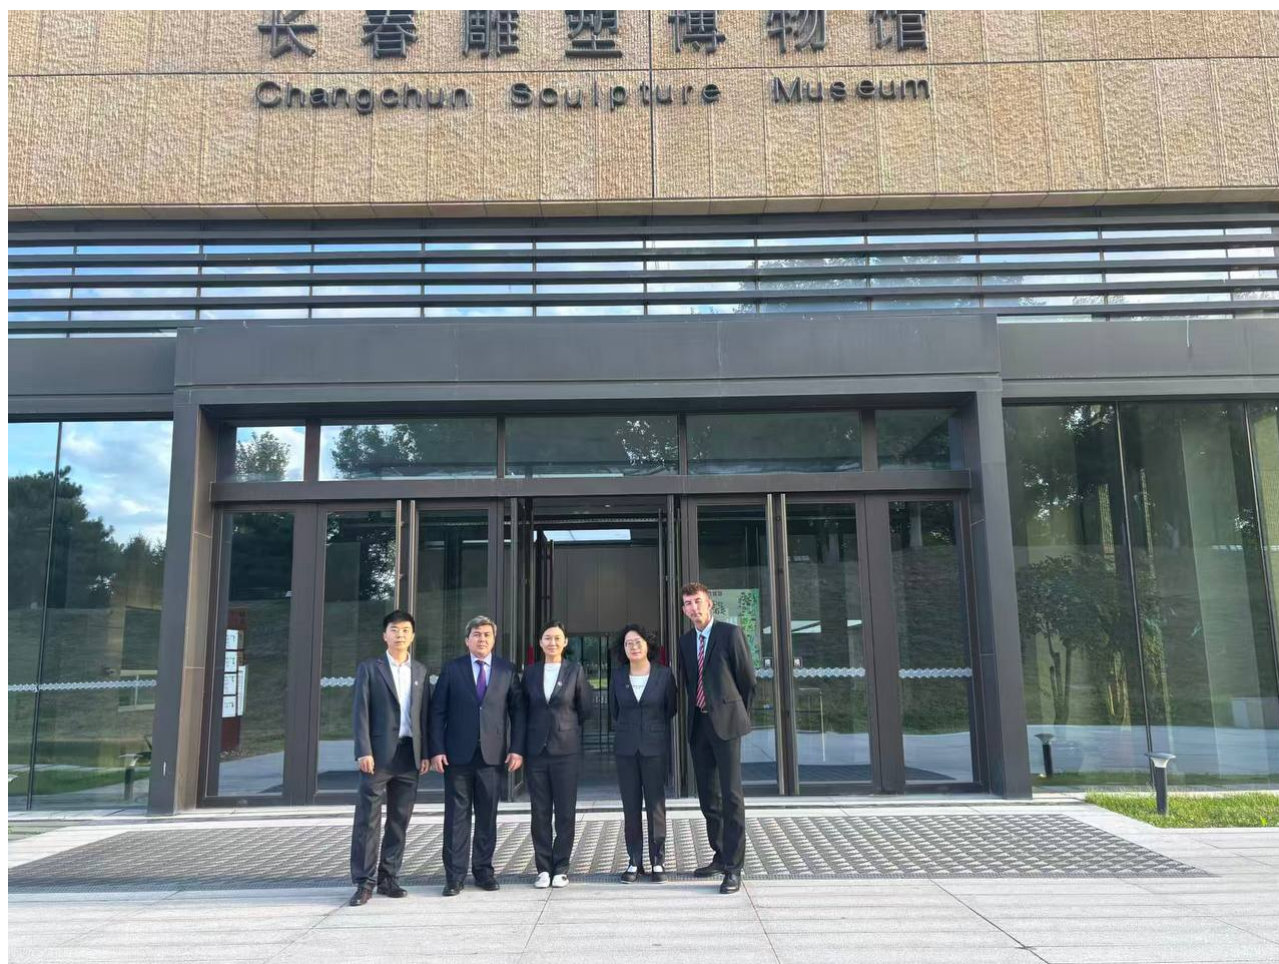

The conference emphasized that international cooperation plays a decisive role in shaping a modern educational environment and training a new generation of specialists capable of working effectively in a globalized world.

The visit of representatives of the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture to the Jilin International University of Education confirmed the beginning of a new stage in the development of bilateral relations. The agreements reached and planned projects laid a solid foundation for expanding academic and cultural cooperation, as well as for strengthening friendship between Uzbekistan and China.

Cooperation relations were established with the Geochang theater school

On August 16, Rector of the State Institute of Art and Culture of Uzbekistan, Professor Nodirbek Sayfullayev met with the delegation of the institution headed by Kang Man Ho, director of the Geochang Theater School of the Republic of Korea. The guests were informed about the rich history and activities of our institute.

In turn, special emphasis was placed on the rapidly developing cooperation between Uzbekistan and the Republic of Korea in the fields of education, culture and art.

At the meeting, the parties discussed the prospects of signing a mutual memorandum and establishing the exchange of professors, teachers and students. In addition, in October of this year, the issues related to the visit of professors and students from the Geochang Theater School to the State Institute of Art and Culture of Uzbekistan and participation in a short-term exchange of experience were agreed upon and the process was initiated through the relevant officials. transfer at a higher level is set.

At the same time, the guests got acquainted with the activities of the stage movement and physical culture department and the educational theater.
